"Business Reviving, World Finding Itself!" ---Harding

WORLD AFFAIRS ARE DISCUSSED BY BIG MEN OF BUSINESS

Place Of Commerce In
Civilization Shown By
Harding, Who Says It
Must Be Considered.

TALKS OF MARINE

Washington, D. C. May 18.—President Harding, speaking today before the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, declared that the country "at this very moment is on the threshold of a new era; that business is reviving and the country is finding itself." The Government, he said, was greatly interested in restoration of normal world business and economic conditions, and he added that there was no disposition on its part to hold aloft from other nations. American industry, however, he said, should not be destroyed to build up the commerce of other lands.

He declared there was no constructive thought in the mind of the administration at present which took rank over that of a desire to establish firmly and successfully an American merchant marine. He doubted he said, if the world war would have occurred had the United States possessed a merchant marine commensurate with its commercial importance.

Business First

"If there is any one realization," he said, "which fixes itself more firmly than another in the mind of one charged with great responsibility, it is the conviction that the business life of the Republic is the reflex of all its good fortunes. Commerce and civilization go hand in hand. Were it not for commerce there would be no civilization."

"From the viewpoint of one in authority and having responsibility comes another consideration. Commerce finds its place in all our considerations. Undoubtedly it had most to do with the bringing about of the World War and I think I can say just as confidently that it was never once forgotten in the negotiations of peace. It is so unextricably associated with all we do that commerce is always foremost in the life of any people."

Would Take Part Abroad

Representation of the United States on the reparations commission was urged by the chamber in a resolution adopted today which declared "that all necessary measures including approval by Congress should be taken speedily."

The chamber also adopted a resolution urging "that our government promptly take its place with the other nations of the world in the international court of justice."

The chamber declared that decisions of the reparations commission will exert a controlling influence over the development of any plan of international loans and greater stability of exchange. The United States and many of its citizens the chamber averred have large claims against Germany which are involved with the whole reparations problem and the commission "exerts a greater influence over the solution of international trade and financial problems than any other single agency in the world."

SEND THE CHILDREN

The Story Tellers and Game Leaders will be at the Market Street School this Saturday morning to entertain the children for an hour with a taste of the good times that are waiting for them this summer when Clearfield Community Service gets the playgrounds going. Over two hundred children enjoyed this play hour the last time it was held at Market street, and have been looking forward to their turn again.

CAN YOU SPARE JUST ONE DOLLAR?

Are you willing to give a dollar bill to help the Salvation Army?

Do you think that the endless good they do in a period of one year is worth $1.00?

There is only one answer—if you think that the happiness they bring to homes at Thanksgiving and Christmas time and the work they do through the year is worth while, you'll give the dollar without question.

The Salvation Army needs 500 to 600 of these dollar bills to put across their $4,000 appeal.

Slip one into an envelope, address it to Captain L. E. Watson, Salvation Army, Clearfield, Pa. Attach your name or leave it off—BUT SEND THE DOLLAR TONIGHT!

ROTARIANS ENJOY HEARING DR. FLOYD TOMPKINS OF PHILA

Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins of Philadelphia who came to Clearfield to deliver the address to the graduating class of the Clearfield Hospital Training School for Nurses was the guest of the Rotary Club at its weekly meeting at the Hotel Jordan last evening. President A. D. Bigler brought Dr. Tompkins from Tyrone to Clearfield in his car for the purpose of entertaining him as the guest of the Rotary Club. Following the regular business Rotarian Ed. Reeve introduced the distinguished Philadelphia who favored the Rotarians with a very fine address. Dr. Tompkins is a big broad-gauge "Sun crowned" American and his remarks were intensely patriotically American. He pilloried the pessimist and said there was no place in America for the man who "viewed with alarm" and could not see that this glorious old world of ours is getting better and will proceed to get better right along until the desired condition intended for us is finally reached.

Dr. Tompkins' remarks were greatly appreciated by the Rotarians who showed their appreciation by heartiest applause.

President Bigler announced that the next meeting of the Club would be held at The Dimeling on Monday evening next at which time the Commercial Club would be the guests of the evening to hear Edward W. Rogers of the National Community Service.

RAIN INTERFERED WITH BASEBALL IN COMMUNITY LEAGUE

Rain prevented the playing of the games scheduled in the Clearfield Community Service Base Ball League yesterday afternoon. M'SPARRAN BREAKS SILENCE, TELLING OF PINCHOT PALS

Makes Much of Grundy, Devlin And Flynn Being On Side of Forester In Recent Campaign.

CITES OWN PURITY

Harrisburg, Pa., May 18.—John A. McSparran, Democratic candidate for governor, declared here today that he saw in the Republican vote at Tuesday's primary evidence that there would be a sweeping reaction to the Democratic party in November. He characterized the Pinchot-Alter struggle as a drawn battle, not for reform but for G. O. P. control, and asserted Mr. Pinchot's supporters would force thinking voters into the Democratic ranks to effect a real cleanup of the state government. In part, he said, "The result of the primary is highly gratifying to every lover of good government in the state. The terrible slump in the Republican vote, under conditions that usually would bring out a very large vote, surely shows that the rank and file of the Republican party care very little whether the followers of the late Senator Penrose or the other crowd won the primaries."

G. O. P. Harmony Hopeless
"The last 10 days of the primary showed that the struggle which resulted in practically a tie was a fight for the control of the party, rather than a fight to clean up the state government."

"Neither faction will concede defeat because a difference of 12,000 in 1,000,000 votes is an almost 50-50 split, and any talk of harmony in such a case is rather the product of a fond hope than the announcement of an actual condition."

"Both Republican candidates are men of upstanding ability and either of them would have given eminent respectability to the ticket."

"The people of Pennsylvania will look at our friend Pinchot and admire him for his fine fight on conservation and state and nation and will hail with joy his announced determination to lean up at Harrisburg, if made Governor."

Pinchot's Associates

Then they will see standing with him Joe Grundy, the exploiter of child labor and the leader of the powerful Manufacturers' Club, which has for years blocked all legislation taxing their capital stock even when roads and teachers' salaries were at stake. They will see Devlin, the Penrose henchman of Philadelphia at his side. They will note Johnson, of Montgomery earnestly plugging up votes for him; they will see Bill Griest, the strutting boss of Lancaster county in the "bunch" and Bill Flinn, the contractor, from Pittsburgh as one of the bell wethers of the flock.

"They will assess the situation and while they will say, 'I love you Pinchot,' they will not choose to place 'his longed for clean up in the hands of those who have been affiliated with either of these factions which, under one man, have for many years taxed our people to the limit and then wasted the tax on fairs, fancies, frauds, jobs and junketing."

DUBOIS MAN WINS IN SECOND DISTRICT FOR LEGISLATURE

The nomination for member of the Legislature from the Second Legislative District of Clearfield county on the Democratic ticket, Tuesday, was won by W. H. Betts, of DuBois. The vote with three small districts out not enough to change the result, is as follows:

W. H. Betts	635
G. W. Bell	551
Betts' Majority	85

DOGS OF WAR STOP SAYS GEORGE

London, England, May 19.—"Europe has been snatched from George said today in an interview with the Daily Express, referring to the Genoa Conference acceptance of his non-aggression pact. "We have stopped the snarling of the dogs of war," he declared. "Lloyd George expressed the hope that the League Conference will enable us to arrange a lasting agreement of peace." He said it was a notable fact that Italy and Britain were marching side by side to a common goal.

TEMPORARY TRUCE AGREED TO BY MEN AT GENOA MEETING

Genoa, Italy, May 19.—The powers at Genoa at a final plenary session of the Economic Conference today gave assent to Lloyd George's proposed temporary truce for Europe and the near East. Representatives of twenty-nine nations met at St. George's Palace to complete the work of the pact, formally accepting the non-aggression pact. Premier Schanzer Italy, signed the document containing the truce agreement and by this act every nation present gave their assent. The plenary session adjourned at 1:10 this afternoon.

McKEES ROCKS WILL RESENT INSULTS ON NAME OF BOROUGH

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19. (U. P.)—The little borough of McKees Rocks near here, is up in arms over the unfavorable publicity it has been getting, and various civic agencies have started a campaign on "better thinking about McKees Rocks."

McKees Rocks so long as residents of Pittsburgh can remember has been the butt of vaudeville and gutter jokes, and whenever McKees Rocks is mentioned in the newspapers it is always in connection with some fire, murder or booze raid.

For instance, imagine yourself in a theatre. A comedian illuminated in all the regalia of a South American general stalks pompously on the stage.

"And who are you?" asks the leader.

"Me?" asks the general person, "umping his chest proudly, "Why I am the ambassador to the United States from McKees Rocks."

That's how it is and in almost every theatre in Pittsburgh you will hear some joke about McKees Rocks. The movement started by the McKees Rocks Business Men's Association has spread so rapidly that the 17,000 residents of the borough have taken up the fight.

HEAR THE RUNAWAY SONG

The pupils of Market Street Schools are working hard to put over with a bang their play entitled "The Runaway Song" which will be given at the Clearfield High School auditorium Saturday evening next.

One of the chief features of the play will be the costumes, which were designed by Dennison's and are real fetching, to say the least.

About twenty or twenty-five little folks will participate in the performance and it will be well worth going to see. An admission fee of 25 cents will be asked of adults for the purpose of defraying the expenses, the remainder, if any, to go to the Library Fund of Market street schools.

RECEIVE WORD OF SISTER'S DEATH

Mrs. Guy Johnson received word today of the death at Williams, Arizona yesterday of her sister Mrs. F. H. Merritt. The deceased was a daughter of the late Gilbert Hoover of Cooper township.

Ex-County Commissioner Commodore Rowles Dies Thursday Afternoon

Ex-County Commissioner Commodore Perry Rowles, a respected Pike township farmer, died at his home Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, as the result of long continued failing health due to hardening of the arteries.

Commodore Rowles was a member of one of the largest pioneer family connections in Clearfield county. He was an honest, upright man, with the courage of his convictions at all times. He took an active interest in public affairs and held many positions of trust in his home township and served two terms as Co. Commissioner of Clearfield county. The same rugged honesty which characterized his private business dealings marked his entire public service and he retired from office at the end of his second term honored and respected by all who came in contact with him as a public officer.

He was survived by his widow, who is herself lying at the point of death and nine children, as follows: Alonzo, Phillip and Scott, of Lawrence township; Calvin of Cooper township; Arthur and Jesses, of Pike twp.; Mrs. Cynthia Aughenbaugh, of Lumber City; Mrs. Alice Howells of Olanet; and Mrs. Mertie DeHaven, of Curwensville.

He was a consistent christian and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. His funeral will be held from his late home Sunday at 2 o'clock with interment in Bloomington Cemetery.

KANSAS WHEAT CROP WILL BE BELOW THE LAST YEAR'S CROP

Topeka, Kansas, May 19.—The wheat crop of Kansas the breadbasket of the world, will be 19,000,000 less than last year, the State Board of Agriculture estimated in a statement issued today. The Kansas 1922 crop was estimated at 108,560,000 bushels, an average of 13.05 bushels per acre. The corn crop was reported as 4,775,000 bushels, or 8% more than last year.

WILL HAVE CHARGE OF BOY SCOUTS CAMP

The local Boy Scouts Council has arranged with Mr. F. W. Warren, of Pittsburgh, to come to Clearfield the coming summer—if summer ever comes—to take charge of the Boy Scout Camp at Camp McPherson. Mr. Warren is a fine appearing man, has had considerable experience in scouting and should prove to be the right man for the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas French of Madera and Mrs. Ralph Palmer of Coalport spent Thursday with Mrs. David Mullen at her home on Reed Street.

RIOT ON GERMAN LINER WHEN AMERICAN PASSENGERS SIT OUT GERMAN ANTHEM

New York, May 18.—A convivial group of passengers on the North German Lloyd line Seydlitz, for the most part Germans but including a few Americans, gathered in the liner's music room, two days out of New York, for an evening of wine and song.

Captain Fritz von Falkenhayn, son of the noted German chief of staff, led the singing in a good round baritone. Late in the evening, when enthusiasm reached its height, the crowd burst into anthem "Deutschland Ueber Alles." The Germans rose. The Americans—including one woman remained seated.

While the singing proceeded, Von Falkenhayn glared. When the last note died away he demanded in a premonitory voice, his face flushed with anger, why they had not stood. "We preferred not to," one of the

HEAR FINE ORATION

The Commencement exercises of the Clearfield Hospital Nurses' Training School, which were held at the High School Auditorium last evening, attracted an audience which comfortably filled the building. It was a highly interesting occasion and reflected great credit on the splendid institution which made such an occasion possible.

The Susquehanna College of Music orchestra opened the program with an overture which met with great favor from the audience. Their second number was a march and as the first strain pealed forth a procession of the Hospital Directors, speaker of the occasion, the doctors and nurses connected with the hospital marched in from either side of the auditorium and made their way to the stage where seats had been arranged for them.

Rev. Dr. E. C. Reeve of the Presbyterian church then delivered the invocation in which he called down God's blessing upon those assembled asking spiritual help and guidance for the graduates about to go forth equipped for the practise of their profession.

Clearfield's premier songsters, the Keystone Quartette then favored the assemblage with a couple of pleasing selections, which evoked a storm of applause.

At this point George R. Bigler, Esq., arose and in a few brief laudatory remarks introduced Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, the noted pastor of Trinity church, Philadelphia, who had been secured to make the address to the graduating class. Dr. Tompkins' reputation as an orator is nationwide and any attempt on our part to commend his effort on this occasion would be superfluous, suffice it to say that Dr. Tompkins made one of his usual wonderfully inspiring addresses which made a distinct and lasting impression upon his hearers and furnished a new incentive and even higher ideals for the young women graduates to strive for in the practice of their profession, which Dr. Tompkins so very highly commended.

When the applause which greeted the speaker at the close of his splendid address had subsided, President H. B. Powell, of the Hospital Board, came forward and in a characteristically brief but telling address presented the graduates.

sented the graduates with the diplomas they had striven so long and so faithfully to obtain. At the conclusion of the presentation the nine graduates presented an inspiring sight as garbed in their uniforms of service and mercy they stood erect and repeated in unison the oath by which they dedicated themselves to the service of ameliorating the sufferings of mankind.

Miss Marjorie Betts closed the program with a most delightful solo, and which earned for her the most extravagant praise from her audience. She was accompanied by Miss Alice Smith on the piano.

Rev. Reeve's benediction brought the affair to an end and marked the most successful occasion of its kind in the history of the institution.

The graduates who received their diplomas were:

Violet Mae French, Madera, Pa.
Lois Bell Thompson, Bigler, Pa.
June Salome Connor, Glen Rockey, Pa.

Hazel Eline Barrat Clearfield Pa.
Goldie Trudell Cunningham, Glen Campbell, Pa.

ODDS AND ENDS
AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Alter's final appeal did it. He asked Pennsylvania Republicans to "stand back of him at the primary and it would only be a question of majority." They took him at his word but got a little too far back for his comfort.

Rabies will soon be eradicated from the United States according to a statement of the Public Health Service made at New York recently. After years of experimenting in the laboratory a serum has been perfected which can be administered to dogs at a nominal cost it is stated. By giving this to animals they would be immune to rabies and of course could not communicate it to man. It would also save thousands of valuable animals which die of the disease each year. The Health Service plans to make the serum available and inaugurate a campaign for its use. Owners of dogs of any value will be urged to take advantage of the opportunity, or legislation may be enacted, compelling immunization of dogs, or their extinction as a menace to the health.

Frederick Delano former president of the Wabash Railroad threw a bomb shell into the United States Chamber of Commerce convention at Washington when he declared that "such a thing as an 'open shop' is an iridescent dream."

Himself, formerly a great employer, he was addressing the organization which organized labor, proponent of the closed union shop, considers its most powerful enemy.

Delano is also a former member of the Federal Reserve Board. In his speech he spoke another heresy in the view of conservatives when he said:

"In America we welcome the advent in the field of railway operation of a Henry Ford, and if I were a railroad man I would try to profit by his methods in any way that might be applicable to my conditions. In other words, there can be progress only if we keep an open mind."

"The success of Mr. Ford's railway may be attributed in a large part to the fact that he can give it business (that is not a novel idea.) but it is inconceivable that so able a manufacturer as Mr. Ford, with a well-trained staff of assistants, cannot add to the sum of human knowledge about operating a railroad."

"However strongly we may be prejudiced against Government operation of railways (Government ownership is a separate question) we must all appreciate that Government operation will come, and indeed should come if and when it is clear that Government operation will yield the greatest return for the expenditures."

He said that the so-called "open shop" so often talked of representative a temporary condition which in practice did not and could not continue, and therefore its discussion was largely academic. He added:

"My experience and observation running over a period of many years satisfies me that until labor unions change their attitude very much such a thing as an 'open shop' is an iridescent dream; it must be either a non-union shop or if it is a union shop it must be closed against non-union men."

VOLSTEAD PREDICTS DEFEAT FOR "WETS" IN CONGRESS BATTLE

Washington, D. C., May 19.—Any attempt in Congress to weaken the Volstead Act by permitting the manufacture of beer and wine will be battered down and beaten, Andrew Volstead, of Minnesota, author of the Prohibition law, declared today. Volstead challenged Liberals in the House to do their worst in their campaign to get the bill passed to permit local option on the wet and dry issue in the different Congressional districts. He declared such an attempt to be utterly futile. The dry leader will take an active part on the side of prohibition. He is planning to circulate a large number of pamphlets attacking the opponents of strict prohibition enforcement. An out and out campaign to inject the wet and dry issue into this fall's congressional elections is being made by Representative Hill, of Maryland, and other Republican Liberals in the lower branch of Congress. They are now circulating petitions by which they hope to force the passage of a bill on local option.

BLIZZARD MUST STAND TRIAL

Charleston, West Va., May 19.—Judge J. M. Wood here today refused the request of the defense to dismiss the treason indictments against Bill Blizzard, mine workers' chief. The defense must proceed with its case, Wood held. This action was a blow to the defense which had sought to have the indictments dismissed on the ground that the State had failed to prove the treason charge.

FUNERAL OF MISS MAUDE PLETCHER

The funeral of the late Miss Maude Pletcher, which was held from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pletcher on South Second street, was attended by a very large number of relatives and friends, that attendance demonstrating the place Miss Pletcher living held in the hearts of all who knew her and the esteem in which she was held by the entire people of this community.

The services were in charge of her pastor, Rev. Dr. Horace, Lincoln Jacobs, of Trinity Methodist church, who made the opening prayer.

A quartette composed of Mrs. E. C. Reeve, Miss Lucille McGee, Wayne Fluck and Robert Mitchell then sang very effectively "Oh! Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

byterian church, followed with a most eloquent and touching eulogy and tribute to the deceased. Dr. Reeve spoke of the place Miss Pletcher filled in this community and said that while she is gone the influence of her teaching and good example will live long in the memories of those who knew her for her sterling worth.

The quartette then sang "Some-time We'll Understand."

Dr. Jacobs then delivered a brief funeral sermon in which he extolled the virtues of the deceased as he knew them during his short residence in Clearfield.

The pall bearers were: Al Rodgers, Fred Rollins, Melvin Schenck, R. D. Hyde, Robert Leavy and W. E. Gilliland.

Interment was made in Hillcrest cemetery.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—(U.P.)—Dr. George Aaron Barton, one of the ranking Semitists in the country and professor of biblical literature and Semitic languages at Bryn Mawr College, has been appointed professor of the Semitic languages at the University of Pennsylvania. AIRPLANE THIEF NEXT PROBLEM

San Francisco, May 19 (United Press)—The police chiefs of the world will convene here on June 19, to attend the twenty-ninth annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

During the week that the convention will be in session, August Vollmer, "scientific" chief of police of Berkeley, Cal., and president of the association has prepared a program that reads like a university curriculum clammed into seven days.

The discussion will range from the best way to put armor on the shotgun squad's automobile to heredity, environment, and psychopathic personalities of crime.

"The only subject we haven't included is that of the airplane thief," declared Chief Vollmer. "We don't have to deal with him just yet, although we probably will in a few years when airplanes become as popular as the automobile."

"That will present a new problem and may call for the installation of 'sky cops.' When a thief takes his foot soaring into the air with him and is a hundred miles away within a few minutes after the crime is committed, it is going to add to the complexities of apprehending him."

"Of course, the problem remains about the same in many ways as other forms of crime—that is we will get him when he comes down. The majority of criminals aren't apprehended while they are committing a crime. We get them when they come to rest."

Mary Marie

By ELEANOR H. PORTER
Author of "Pollyanna," "Oh, Money! Money!," "Just David," etc.

"Pollyanna," with its optimism and cheer was such a clever story that it resulted in the formation of a cult with thousands of members. "Mary Marie" is even better.

It could appropriately have been entitled, "Mary Marie and Marriage," for it gives an answer to the great family problem of what happens to the children when father and mother are divorced. The child's point of view is presented here for the first time in a work of fiction.

It is Such a Superb Story, interesting to men, women and children, that it has been selected for serial reproduction in

"Business Reviving, World Finding Itself!" ---Harding

WORLD AFFAIRS ARE DISCUSSED BY BIG MEN OF BUSINESS

Place Of Commerce In
Civilization Shown By
Harding, Who Says It
Must Be Considered.

TALKS OF MARINE

Washington, D. C. May 18.—President Harding, speaking today before the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, declared that the country "at this very moment is on the threshold of a new era; that business is reviving and the country is finding itself." The Government, he said, was greatly interested in restoration of normal world business and economic conditions, and he added that there was no disposition on its part to hold aloft from other nations. American industry, however, he said, should not be destroyed to build up the commerce of other lands.

He declared there was no constructive thought in the mind of the administration at present which took rank over that of a desire to establish firmly and successfully an American merchant marine. He doubted he said, if the world war would have occurred had the United States possessed a merchant marine commensurate with its commercial importance.

Business First

"If there is any one realization," he said, "which fixes itself more firmly than another in the mind of one charged with great responsibility, it is the conviction that the business life of the Republic is the reflex of all its good fortunes. Commerce and civilization go hand in hand. Were it not for commerce there would be no civilization."

"From the viewpoint of one in authority and having responsibility comes another consideration. Commerce finds its place in all our considerations. Undoubtedly it had most to do with the bringing about of the World War and I think I can say just as confidently that it was never once forgotten in the negotiations of peace. It is so unextricably associated with all we do that commerce is always foremost in the life of any people."

Would Take Part Abroad

Representation of the United States on the reparations commission was urged by the chamber in a resolution adopted today which declared "that all necessary measures including approval by Congress should be taken speedily."

The chamber also adopted a resolution urging "that our government promptly take its place with the other nations of the world in the international court of justice."

The chamber declared that decisions of the reparations commission will exert a controlling influence over the development of any plan of international loans and greater stability of exchange. The United States and many of its citizens the chamber averred have large claims against Germany which are involved with the whole reparations problem and the commission "exerts a greater influence over the solution of international trade and financial problems than any other single agency in the world."

SEND THE CHILDREN

The Story Tellers and Game Leaders will be at the Market Street School this Saturday morning to entertain the children for an hour with a taste of the good times that are waiting for them this summer when Clearfield Community Service gets the playgrounds going. Over two hundred children enjoyed this play hour the last time it was held at Market street, and have been looking forward to their turn again.

CAN YOU SPARE JUST ONE DOLLAR?

Are you willing to give a dollar bill to help the Salvation Army?

There is only one answer—if you think that the happiness they bring to homes at Thanksgiving and Christmas time and the work they do through the year is worth while, you'll give the dollar without question.

The Salvation Army needs 500 to 600 of these dollar bills to put across their $4,000 appeal.

ROTARIANS ENJOY HEARING DR. FLOYD TOMPKINS OF PHILA

Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins of Philadelphia who came to Clearfield to deliver the address to the graduating class of the Clearfield Hospital Training School for Nurses was the guest of the Rotary Club at its weekly meeting at the Hotel Jordan last evening. President A. D. Bigler brought Dr. Tompkins from Tyrone to Clearfield in his car for the purpose of entertaining him as the guest of the Rotary Club. Following the regular business Rotarian Ed. Reeve introduced the distinguished Philadelphia who favored the Rotarians with a very fine address. Dr. Tompkins is a big broad-gauge "Sun crowned" American and his remarks were intensely patriotically American. He pilloried the pessimist and said there was no place in America for the man who "viewed with alarm" and could not see that this glorious old world of ours is getting better and will proceed to get better right along until the desired condition intended for us is finally reached.

Dr. Tompkins' remarks were greatly appreciated by the Rotarians who showed their appreciation by heartiest applause.

President Bigler announced that the next meeting of the Club would be held at The Dimeling on Monday evening next at which time the Commercial Club would be the guests of the evening to hear Edward W. Rogers of the National Community Service.

M'SPARRAN BREAKS SILENCE, TELLING OF PINCHOT PALS

Makes Much of Grundy, Devlin And Flynn Being On Side of Forester In Recent Campaign.

CITES OWN PURITY

Harrisburg, Pa., May 18.—John A. McSparran, Democratic candidate for governor, declared here today that he saw in the Republican vote at Tuesday's primary evidence that there would be a sweeping reaction to the Democratic party in November. He characterized the Pinchot-Alter struggle as a drawn battle, not for reform but for G. O. P. control, and asserted Mr. Pinchot's supporters would force thinking voters into the Democratic ranks to effect a real cleanup of the state government. In part, he said, "The result of the primary is highly gratifying to every lover of good government in the state. The terrible slump in the Republican vote, under conditions that usually would bring out a very large vote, surely shows that the rank and file of the Republican party care very little whether the followers of the late Senator Penrose or the other crowd won the primaries."

G. O. P. Harmony Hopeless
"The last 10 days of the primary showed that the struggle which resulted in practically a tie was a fight for the control of the party, rather than a fight to clean up the state government."

"Neither faction will concede defeat because a difference of 12,000 in 1,000,000 votes is an almost 50-50 split, and any talk of harmony in such a case is rather the product of a fond hope than the announcement of an actual condition."

"Both Republican candidates are men of upstanding ability and either of them would have given eminent respectability to the ticket."

"The people of Pennsylvania will look at our friend Pinchot and admire him for his fine fight on conservation and state and nation and will hail with joy his announced determination to lean up at Harrisburg, if made Governor."

Pinchot's Associates

Then they will see standing with him Joe Grundy, the exploiter of child labor and the leader of the powerful Manufacturers' Club, which has for years blocked all legislation taxing their capital stock even when roads and teachers' salaries were at stake. They will see Devlin, the Penrose henchman of Philadelphia at his side. They will note Johnson, of Montgomery earnestly plugging up votes for him; they will see Bill Griest, the straddling boss of Lancaster county in the "bunch" and Bill Flinn, the contractor, from Pittsburgh as one of the bell wethers of the flock.

"They will assess the situation and while they will say, 'I love you Pinchot,' they will not choose to place 'his longed for clean up in the hands of those who have been affiliated with either of these factions which, under one man, have for many years taxed our people to the limit and then wasted the tax on fairs, fancies, frauds, jobs and junketing."

DUBOIS MAN WINS IN SECOND DISTRICT FOR LEGISLATURE

The nomination for member of the Legislature from the Second Legislative District of Clearfield county on the Democratic ticket, Tuesday, was won by W. H. Betts, of DuBois. The vote with three small districts out not enough to change the result, is as follows:

W. H. Betts	636
G. W. Bell	551
Betts' Majority	85

DOGS OF WAR STOP SAYS GEORGE

London, England, May 19.—"Europe has been snatched from George said today in an interview with the Daily Express, referring to the Genoa Conference acceptance of his non-aggression pact. "We have stopped the snarling of the dogs of war," he declared. "Lloyd George expressed the hope that the League Conference will enable us to arrange a lasting agreement of peace." He said it was a notable fact that Italy and Britain were marching side by side to a common goal.

TEMPORARY TRUCE AGREED TO BY MEN AT GENOA MEETING

Genoa, Italy, May 19.—The powers at Genoa at a final plenary session of the Economic Conference today gave assent to Lloyd George's proposed temporary truce for Europe and the near East. Representatives of twenty-nine nations met at St. George's Palace to complete the work of the parity, formally accepting the non-aggression pact. Premier Schanzer Italy, signed the document containing the truce agreement and by this act every nation present gave their assent. The plenary session adjourned at 1:10 this afternoon.

McKEES ROCKS WILL RESENT INSULTS ON NAME OF BOROUGH

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19. (U. P.)—The little borough of McKees Rocks near here, is up in arms over the unfavorable publicity it has been getting, and various civic agencies have started a campaign on "better thinking about McKees Rocks."

McKees Rocks so long as residents of Pittsburgh can remember has been the butt of vaudeville and gutter jokes, and whenever McKees Rocks is mentioned in the newspapers it is always in connection with some fire, murder or booze raid.

For instance, imagine yourself in a theatre. A comedian illuminated in all the regalia of a South American general stalks pompously on the stage.

"And who are you?" asks the leader.

"Me?" asks the general person, "umping his chest proudly, "Why I am the ambassador to the United States from McKees Rocks."

That's how it is and in almost every theatre in Pittsburgh you will hear some joke about McKees Rocks. The movement started by the McKees Rocks Business Men's Association has spread so rapidly that the 17,000 residents of the borough have taken up the fight.

HEAR THE RUNAWAY SONG

The pupils of Market Street Schools are working hard to put over with a bang their play entitled "The Runaway Song" which will be given at the Clearfield High School auditorium Saturday evening next.

One of the chief features of the play will be the costumes, which were designed by Dennison's and are real fetching, to say the least.

About twenty or twenty-five little folks will participate in the performance and it will be well worth going to see. An admission fee of 25 cents will be asked of adults for the purpose of defraying the expenses, the remainder, if any, to go to the Library Fund of Market street schools.

RECEIVE WORD OF SISTER'S DEATH

Mrs. Guy Johnson received word today of the death at Williams, Arizona yesterday at 2:30 of her sister Mrs. F. H. Merritt. The deceased was a daughter of the late Gilbert Hoover of Cooper township.

Ex-County Commissioner Commodore Rowles Dies Thursday Afternoon

Ex-County Commissioner Commodore Perry Rowles, a respected Pike township farmer, died at his home Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, as the result of long continued failing health due to hardening of the arteries.

Commodore Rowles was a member of one of the largest pioneer family connections in Clearfield county. He was an honest, upright man, with the courage of his convictions at all times. He took an active interest in public affairs and held many positions of trust in his home township and served two terms as Co. Commissioner of Clearfield county. The same rugged honesty which characterized his private business dealings marked his entire public service and he retired from office at the end of his second term honored and respected by all who came in contact with him as a public officer.

He was survived by his widow, who is herself lying at the point of death and nine children, as follows: Alonzo, Phillip and Scott, of Lawrence township; Calvin of Cooper township; Arthur and Jesses, of Pike twp.; Mrs. Cynthia Aughenbaugh, of Lumber City; Mrs. Alice Howells of Olanet; and Mrs. Mertie DeHaven, of Curwensville.

He was a consistent christian and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. His funeral will be held from his late home Sunday at 2 o'clock with interment in Bloomington Cemetery.

KANSAS WHEAT CROP WILL BE BELOW THE LAST YEAR'S CROP

Topeka, Kansas, May 19.—The wheat crop of Kansas the breadbasket of the world, will be 19,000,000 less than last year, the State Board of Agriculture estimated in a statement issued today. The Kansas 1922 crop was estimated at 108,560,000 bushels, an average of 13.05 bushels per acre. The corn crop was reported as 4,775,000 bushels, or 8% more than last year.

WILL HAVE CHARGE OF BOY SCOUTS CAMP

The local Boy Scouts Council has arranged with Mr. F. W. Warren, of Pittsburgh, to come to Clearfield the coming summer—if summer ever comes—to take charge of the Boy Scout Camp at Camp McPherson. Mr. Warren is a fine appearing man, has had considerable experience in scouting and should prove to be the right man for the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas French of Madera and Mrs. Ralph Palmer of Coalport spent Thursday with Mrs. David Mullen at her home on Reed Street.

NINE GET DIPLOMAS AT THE HOSPITAL COMMENCEMENT

Great Outpouring Of People Here Turn Out
To Honor Students In Work Of Mercy.

HEAR FINE ORATION

The Commencement exercises of the Clearfield Hospital Nurses' Training School, which were held at the High School Auditorium last evening, attracted an audience which comfortably filled the building. It was a highly interesting occasion and reflected great credit on the splendid institution which made such an occasion possible.

The Susquehanna College of Music orchestra opened the program with an overture which met with great favor from the audience. Their second number was a march and as the first strain pealed forth a procession of the Hospital Directors, speaker of the occasion, the doctors and nurses connected with the hospital marched in from either side of the auditorium and made their way to the stage where seats had been arranged for them.

Rev. Dr. E. C. Reeve of the Presbyterian church then delivered the invocation in which he called down God's blessing upon those assembled asking spiritual help and guidance for the graduates about to go forth equipped for the practise of their profession.

Clearfield's premier songsters, the Keystone Quartette then favored the assemblage with a couple of pleasing selections, which evoked a storm of applause.

At this point George R. Bigler, Esq., arose and in a few brief laudatory remarks introduced Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, the noted pastor of Trinity church, Philadelphia, who had been secured to make the address to the graduating class. Dr. Tompkins' reputation as an orator is nationwide and any attempt on our part to commend his effort on this occasion would be superfluous, suffice it to say that Dr. Tompkins made one of his usual wonderfully inspiring addresses which made a distinct and lasting impression upon his hearers and furnished a new incentive and even higher ideals for the young women graduates to strive for in the practice of their profession, which Dr. Tompkins so very highly commended.

When the applause which greeted the speaker at the close of his splendid address had subsided, President H. B. Powell, of the Hospital Board, came forward and in a characteristically brief but telling address presented the graduates.

RIOT ON GERMAN LINER WHEN AMERICAN PASSENGERS SIT OUT GERMAN ANTHEM

New York, May 18.—A convivial group of passengers on the North German Lloyd line Seydlitz, for the most part Germans but including a few Americans, gathered in the liner's music room, two days out of New York, for an evening of wine and song.

Captain Fritz von Falkenhayn, son of the noted German chief of staff, led the singing in a good round baritone. Late in the evening, when enthusiasm reached its height, the crowd burst into anthem "Deutschland Ueber Alles." The Germans rose. The Americans—including one woman remained seated.

While the singing proceeded, Von Falkenhayn glared. When the last note died away he demanded in a premonitory voice, his face flushed with anger, why they had not stood. "We preferred not to," one of the passengers replied. "Courtesy demands that you stand," the captain said.

"That is a matter of opinion," said the American.

There was a crash and the broken fragments of a liquor glass dropped to the floor leaving a wet stain of wine on the wall above the American. Instantly the smoking room became a bedlam. Men rushed to restrain Von Falkenhayn and his opponents. The party was broken up and the German captain was carried away by his friends.

In the morning he is said to have apologized, particularly to the woman. And the remainder of the trip was peaceful.

Upon the arrival of the Seydlitz in New York, Von Falkenhayn said he had come over to take a position with an automobile concern.

NINE GET DIPLOMAS

sented the graduates with the diplomas they had striven so long and so faithfully to obtain. At the conclusion of the presentation the nine graduates presented an inspiring sight as garbed in their uniforms of service and mercy they stood erect and repeated in unison the oath by which they dedicated themselves to the service of ameliorating the sufferings of mankind.

Miss Marjorie Betts closed the program with a most delightful solo and which earned for her the most extravagant praise from her audience. She was accompanied by Miss Alice Smith on the piano.

Rev. Reeve's benediction brought the affair to an end and marked the most successful occasion of its kind in the history of the institution.

The graduates who received their diplomas were:

Violet Mae French, Madera, Pa.
Lois Bell Thompson, Bigler, Pa.
June Salome Connor, Glen Rockey, Pa.

Hazel Eline Barrat Clearfield Pa.
Goldie Trudell Cunningham, Glen Campbell, Pa.

Virginia Mae Graham, Shawville, Pa.

Virginia Butler, West Decatur, Pa.
Harriet Hays McCloskey, Charvensville, Pa.

Inez Beryl Dotts, Clearfield, Pa.

Having killed off all coyotes, as poets, Washington state farmers are thinking of importing more. The secret: Coyotes eat field mice.

AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Alter's final appeal did it. He asked Pennsylvania Republicans to "stand back of him at the primary and it would only be a question of majority." They took him at his word but got a little too far back for his comfort.

Rabies will soon be eradicated from the United States according to a statement of the Public Health Service made at New York recently. After years of experimenting in the laboratory a serum has been perfected which can be administered to dogs at a nominal cost it is stated. By giving this to animals they would be immune to rabies and of course could not communicate it to man. It would also save thousands of valuable animals which die of the disease each year. The Health Service plans to make the serum available and inaugurate a campaign for its use. Owners of dogs of any value will be urged to take advantage of the opportunity, or legislation may be enacted compelling immunization of dogs, or their extinction as a menace to the health.

Frederick Delano former president of the Wabash Railroad threw a bomb shell into the United States Chamber of Commerce convention at Washington when he declared that "such a thing as an 'open shop' is an iridescent dream."

Himself, formerly a great employer, he was addressing the organization which organized labor, proponent of the closed union shop, considers its most powerful enemy.

Delano is also a former member of the Federal Reserve Board. In his speech he spoke another heresy in the view of conservatives when he said:

"In America we welcome the advent in the field of railway operation of a Henry Ford, and if I were a railroad man I would try to profit by his methods in any way that might be applicable to my conditions. In other words, there can be progress only if we keep an open mind."

"The success of Mr. Ford's railway may be attributed in a large part to the fact that he can give it business (that is not a novel idea.) but it is inconceivable that so able a manufacturer as Mr. Ford, with a well-trained staff of assistants, cannot add to the sum of human knowledge about operating a railroad."

"However strongly we may be prejudiced against Government operation of railways (Government ownership is a separate question) we must all appreciate that Government operation will come, and indeed should come if and when it is clear that Government operation will yield the greatest return for the expenditures."

He said that the so-called "open shop" so often talked of representative a temporary condition which in practice did not and could not continue, and therefore its discussion was largely academic. He added:

"My experience and observation running over a period of many years satisfies me that until labor unions change their attitude very much such a thing as an 'open shop' is an iridescent dream; it must be either a non-union shop or if it is a union shop it must be closed against non-union men."

Any one thing in the creation is sufficient to demonstrate a Providence to a humble and grateful mind.—Epictetus.

VOLSTEAD PREDICTS
DEFEAT FOR "WETS"
IN CONGRESS BATTLE

Washington, D. C., May 19.—Any attempt in Congress to weaken the Volstead Act by permitting the manufacture of beer and wine will be battered down and beaten, Andrew Volstead, of Minnesota, author of the Prohibition law, declared today. Volstead challenged Liberals in the House to do their worst in their campaign to get the bill passed to permit local option on the wet and dry issue in the different Congressional districts. He declared such an attempt to be utterly futile. The dry leader will take an active part on the side of prohibition. He is planning to circulate a large number of pamphlets attacking the opponents of strict prohibition enforcement. An out and out campaign to inject the wet and dry issue into this fall's congressional elections is being made by Representative Hill, of Maryland, and other Republican Liberals in the lower branch of Congress. They are now circulating petitions by which they hope to force the passage of a bill on local option.

Miss Larue Chorpene left this morning for Lancaster and other eastern counties.

BLIZZARD MUST STAND TRIAL

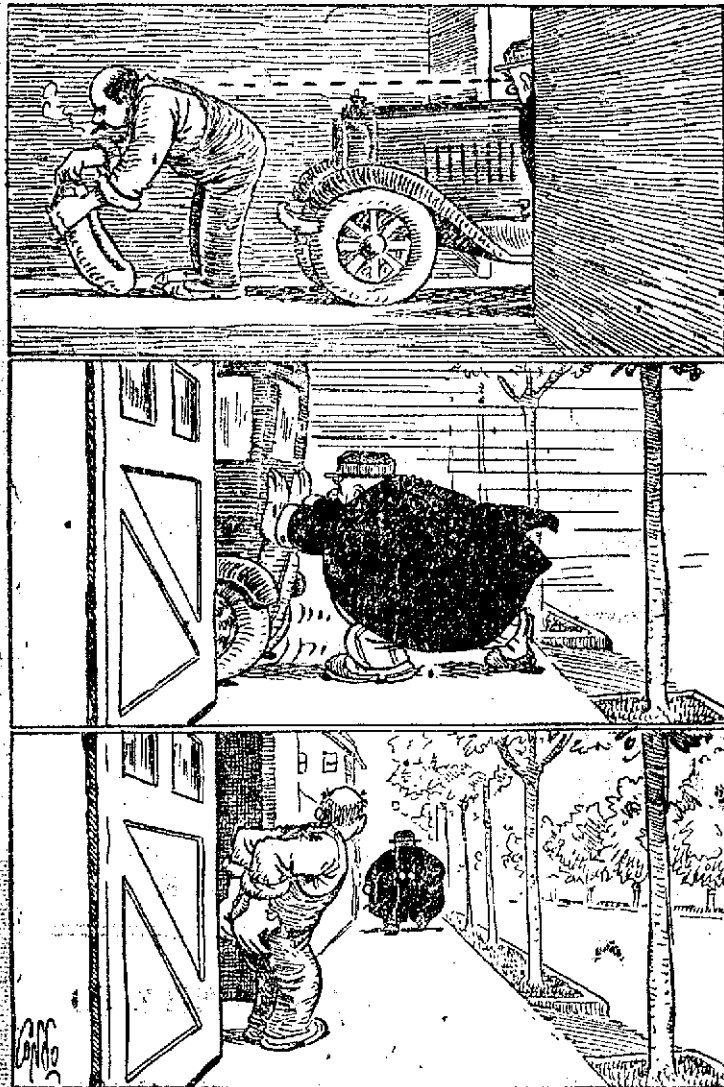

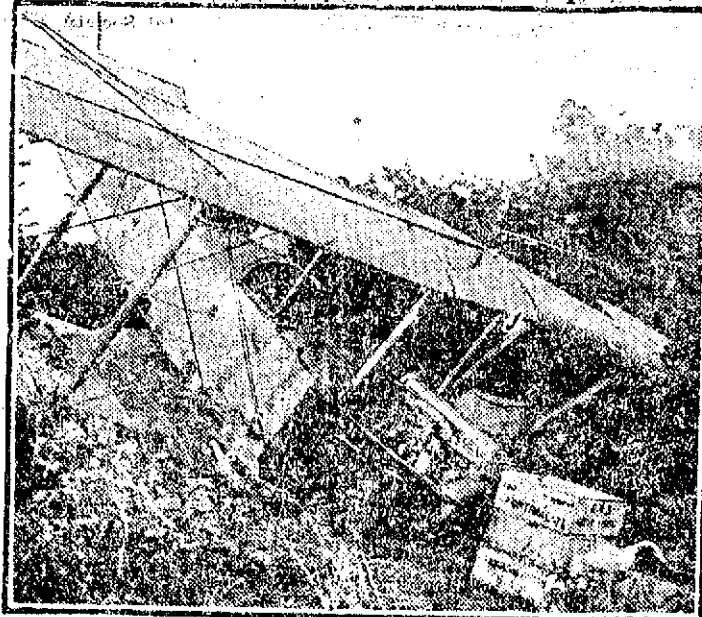

Charleston, West Va., May 19.—Judge J. M. Wood here today refused the request of the defense to dismiss the treason indictments against Bill Blizzard, mine workers' chief. The defense must proceed with its case, Wood held. This action was a blow to the defense which had sought to have the indictments dismissed on the ground that the State had failed to prove the treason charge.

FUNERAL OF MISS MAUDE PLETCHER

The funeral of the late Miss Maude Pletcher, which was held from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pletcher on South Second street, was attended by a very large number of relatives and friends, that attendance demonstrating the place Miss Pletcher held in the hearts of all who knew her and the esteem in which she was held by the entire people of this community.

The services were in charge of her pastor, Rev. Dr. Horace, Lincoln Jacobs, of Trinity Methodist church, who made the opening prayer.

A quartette composed of Mrs. E. C. Reeve, Miss Lucille McGee, Wayne Fluck and Robert Mitchell then sang very effectively "Oh! Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

byterian church, followed with a most eloquent and touching eulogy and tribute to the deceased. Dr. Reeve spoke of the place Miss Pletcher filled in this community and said that while she is gone the influence of her teaching and good example will live long in the memories of those who knew her for her sterling worth.

The quartette then sang "Some-time We'll Understand."

Dr. Jacobs then delivered a brief funeral sermon in which he extolled the virtues of the deceased as he knew them during his short residence in Clearfield.

The pall bearers were: Al Rodgers, Fred Rollins, Melvin Schenck, R. D. Hyde, Robert Leavy and W. E. Gilliland.

Interment was made in Hillcrest cemetery.

NEW PROFESSOR OF SEMITIC LANGUAGE FOR UNIV. OF PENNA.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—(U.P.)—Dr. George Aaron Barton, one of the ranking Semitists in the country and professor of biblical literature and Semitic languages at Bryn Mawr College, has been appointed professor of the Semitic languages at the University of Pennsylvania. He succeeds the late Prof. Morris Jastrow.

Acting Provost Josiah H. Penniman announced Dr. Barton's acceptance of the post. Dr. Barton possesses the confidence and affection of Doctor Jastrow and like his predecessor has distinguished himself in contributions to most departments of Semitic science and has been a notable student in the history of religions.

In Assyriology, Doctor Barton has published many volumes, especially of Sumerian texts, among them several published by the University Museum and a work that will be for long a standard, "The Origin and Development of Babylonian Writings." The book which established Doctor Barton's international reputation was his "Sketch of Semitic Origins" in 1902. Doctor Barton served as Chaplain at Bryn Mawr. He was president of the society of Biblical Literature and of the American Oriental Society. He is a member of the American Philosophical Society. In 1903 he was director of the American School in Jerusalem and is now serving as Secy. Treas. of its board of trustees. He is president of the Pennsylvania Society of the Achaean Institute. Doctor Barton is also professor of the New Testament at the Philadelphia Divinity School a position which he will continue to fill.

AIRPLANE THIEF NEXT PROBLEM

San Francisco, May 19 (United Press)—The police chiefs of the world will convene here on June 19, to attend the twenty-ninth annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

During the week that the convention will be in session, August Vollmer, "scientific" chief of police of Berkeley, Cal., and president of the association has prepared a program that reads like a university curriculum clammed into seven days.

The discussion will range from the best way to put armor on the shotgun squad's automobile to heredity, environment, and psychopathic personalities of crime.

"The only subject we haven't included is that of the airplane thief," declared Chief Vollmer. "We don't have to deal with him just yet, although we probably will in a few years when airplanes become as popular as the automobile."

"That will present a new problem and may call for the installation of 'sky cops.' When a thief takes his foot soaring into the air with him and is a hundred miles away within a few minutes after the crime is committed, it is going to add to the complexities of apprehending him."

"Of course, the problem remains about the same in many ways as other forms of crime—that is we will get him when he comes down. The majority of criminals aren't apprehended while they are committing a crime. We get them when they come to rest."

GLASSES
THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS

The map, the sign posts,
the roads, and the view are clearly visible at all times. No seams or humps to fog your vision or to show that you are wearing bifocals. KRYPTOKS will prove invaluable to you throughout the day.
